GEORGE WASHINGTON HENDERSON

First African-American Elected to Phi Beta Kappa Minister, Educator, Champion of His Race

Born in Virginia in 1850, Henderson was employed as a servant by Henry Carpenter, adjutant in the Eighth Vermont Regiment in the Civil War. In 1865 he accompanied Carpenter to his home in Bellflore and began "to learn his letters" with Omer Atwood in Underhill and at Barre Academy. He entered the University of Vermont and graduated at the top of his class in 1872. He attended schools in Jericho, Craftsbury, and Newport. After graduating in 1883 from Yale Divinity School, he went south in 1888 to serve as Congregational minister in New Orleans. He was author, in 1894, of the first formal protest against lynching in the U.S. From 1890 to 1932 he taught theology and classical languages in Straight (now Dillard), Fisk, and Wilberforce Universities. He died in Wilberforce, Ohio, in 1936.

Hinman Road

The Hinman Settler Road begins here at Greensboro's Four Corners, passes through Glover, Barton, and Brownington, and ends at the Quebec border in Derby. It is named after Timothy Hinman, born in 1761 in Woodbury, CT, one of many Revolutionary War veterans who headed north. Arriving in Greensboro in 1792, Hinman had learned roadbuilding and surveying in the army and started building a road through the wilderness toward Canada, hoping to facilitate trade with the British. He established the town of Derby, but due to Jefferson's embargo against trade with England, his hopes for trade were not successful. The road that now bears his name opened the entire area to settlement.

Hi Audrey,

I have spoken to Nancy Hill about the Historical Society's desire to erect a state historical sign at the 4 corners near the ball field. I have learned that the Select Board has waived the filing fee for the Historical Society. Please accept the application and forward it to Jan Travers so that we can schedule a hearing. I know you have offered your opinion that the bylaw prohibits signs in the lake shore protection district, but we have recently considered such a sign at the Lincoln-Noyes cemetery and granted that application.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact me. I would like to get this matter before the DBR as soon as practicable. Thank you, Jane from the June 12, 2019 meeting:

- 2. Greensboro Historical Society – Clive Gray, Nancy Hill. The Hinman Settler Rd. begins at Greensboro's Four Corners, and the GHS is planning to request that the state install a permanent historical marker at the pullout area adjacent to the ballfield. As this area is in the Lakeshore District, the sign must be approved by the DRB; Clive and Nancy requested that the town waive the $200 zoning fee. Tracy made the following motion:

The Board is in support of the Hinman Rd. sign as proposed, and agrees that the zoning fee should be waived.

Mike seconded the motion, which carried unanimously.

Hi there. Can you do a search on your computer as to when Nancy Hill came to the board to get a waiver of the DRB fee for the Hinman Settler Road sign?

Audrey was looking through the minutes, but couldn't find it. It is probably there, but hoping you had a quick way to search.... thanks.
