Definitions:

Permanent Sign: A permanent sign is one which is erected for longer than the one week period permitted by Temporary Signs defined below.

Temporary Sign: A temporary sign is one that is designed to announce an event up to one week before said event.

Rules Governing Temporary Signs:

1. The size of any permanent or temporary sign may not exceed 6 square feet.
2. Each lot may have one permanent and one temporary sign at any given time except the Lakeshore Protection District where no signs (except political signs) are permitted.
3. A temporary sign may be erected up to two weeks before the date of an event and any lot owner or organization may erect up to 6 such signs in any calendar year. The sign must be removed within 2 days after the event.
4. Temporary signs may be erected on the Town Green in the area designated for such signs. Any individual or organization may have one sign erected on the Town Green at any given time.
5. A commercial enterprise may erect one temporary sign at the closest road intersection. The sign may be displayed for up to 5 months in any calendar year. The sign must be at least 25 feet from the center line of the road. This sign can not be erected in addition to the one temporary sign per lot.
6. Political signs may be erected up to 60 days before any election and must be removed within 7 days of that election. The size of political signs may not exceed 6 square feet. Political signs may not be put side by side so as to create a larger sign.
7. One sign up to 4 square feet may be displayed on any lot for any length of time.
8. An informational kiosk may be erected at the trailhead of any publicly accessible recreation area where the recreation area exceeds 20 acres. The sign may include up to 3 panels. Each panel may not exceed 12 square feet. The panels may be in a straight line, winged or in a triangular shape. A small roof may be built atop the panels to protect the sign from precipitation. The panel design must be approved by the Zoning Administrator.

9. Any violation of this ordinance will incur a fine of $100 for each day of non compliance.
